To learn more about how Tulsa Community Foundation can assist you to simplify, streamline and maximize your charitable giving, please contact:

Director of Donor Partnerships
7330 S. Yale Ave., Suite 600
Tulsa, OK 74136
918.494.8823
info@tulsacf.org
www.tulsacf.org

TULSA COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Tulsa Community Foundation (TCF) was founded in late 1998 and exists to make charitable giving more meaningful and efficient. Hundreds of individuals and corporations make all their contributions to charities through TCF’s services. TCF’s donors and the charitable nature of Tulsans have made TCF the largest community foundation in America.

Donors give cash or appreciated assets to TCF and create individual funds in their names. Donors receive an immediate tax deduction and one receipt from TCF, then advise when those assets are given to charities they choose. TCF reviews each recommendation and approved grants are made to charities. In the name of this donor’s fund, in Oklahoma, America and internationally, TCF handles all accounting, reporting, investing and grantmaking.

TCF helps educate donors on the community’s highest needs, creates focused charitable giving strategies for donors, and works to involve children and other family members in multi-generational giving. TCF hosts programs that inform donors across the community about planned giving opportunities – using wealth, rather than current assets, to fund charitable activities. These programs allow donors to maximize what they leave to their families and to charity.

Please consider how you can use TCF’s services to better accomplish your charitable objectives and make a more lasting impact on our community.

TAKING REFUGE IN A TRUST

To learn more about how Tulsa Community Foundation can assist you to simplify, streamline and maximize your charitable giving, please contact:

Director of Donor Partnerships
7330 S. Yale Ave., Suite 600
Tulsa, OK 74136
918.494.8823
info@tulsacf.org
www.tulsacf.org
TULSA COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Tulsa Community Foundation (TCF) was founded in late 1998 and exists to make charitable giving more meaningful and efficient. Hundreds of individuals and corporations make all their contributions to charities through TCF’s services. TCF’s donors and the charitable nature of Tulsans have made TCF the largest community foundation in America.

Donors give cash or appreciated assets to TCF and create individual funds in their names. Donors receive an immediate tax deduction and one receipt from TCF, then advise when those assets are given to charities they choose. TCF reviews each recommendation and approved grants are made to charities, in the name of the donor’s fund, in Oklahoma, America and internationally. TCF handles all accounting, reporting, investing and grantmaking.

TCF helps educate donors on the community’s highest needs, creates focused charitable giving strategies for donors, and works to involve children and other family members in multi-generational giving. TCF hosts programs that inform donors across the community about planned giving opportunities—using wealth, rather than current assets, to fund charitable activities. These programs allow donors to maximize what they leave to their families and to charity.

Please consider how you can use TCF’s services to better accomplish your charitable objectives and make a more lasting impact on our community.
The information in this publication is not intended as legal advice. For legal advice, please consult with an attorney.

REVoCABLE LiVinG TRUST
If you knew in advance that at your death...
• your assets would be reduced by two to twelve percent
• it would take a year to pass your assets to your heirs
• your personal financial information would be made public would you take steps to avoid this scenario? If you answered “YES”, then you are one of many who want to avoid probate. Probate is the legal process that changes asset ownership from your name to your heirs using the courts. Unfortunately, if you have a will, your assets must still go through probate. To avoid probate costs, delays, and invasion of privacy, you may want to consider a revocable living trust.

WHAT iS A REV oCABLE LiVinG TRUST? A revocable living trust (or a “living trust”) is a legal entity that, like a will, provides a list of instructions for distributing your assets at death. But, unlike a will, a revocable living trust avoids probate.

CIRCUMSTAn CE WiLL REVoCABLE LiVinG TRUST
During Your Lifetime
You manage and use your property as you have always done.
During Incapacity/Disability
You manage and use your property as you have always done. Requires court management of your financial affairs. Court, legal and executor costs 9 months to 2 years delay in distribution Public disclosure
At Your Death
You manage and use your property as you have always done.
Avoids court management of your financial affairs. No probate costs Swift distribution Your information kept private

REmEmBRinG T o TRAnSFER yoUR VALUES
Like many Americans, you may want to make a gift to charity. Naming a fund at TCF as a beneficiary in your Revocable Living Trust can be an effective way to perpetuate your values of making an impact through providing support for your favorite charities. Many people would like to do more philanthropically, but have other responsibilities to consider. A gift in your Revocable Living Trust allows you to give when you no longer need the funds and also lowers your estate taxes.

TRANSFER YOUR VALUES

The information in this publication is not intended as legal advice. For legal advice, please consult with an attorney.
REVoCABLE LiVinG TRUST

If you knew in advance that at your death...
• your assets would be reduced by two to twelve percent
• it would take a year to pass your assets to your heirs
• your personal financial information would be made public

would you take steps to avoid this scenario? If you answered “YES”, then you are one of many who want to avoid probate. Probate is the legal process that changes asset ownership from your name to your heirs using the courts. Unfortunately, if you have a will, your assets must still go through probate. To avoid probate costs, delays, and invasion of privacy, you may want to consider a revocable living trust.

WHAT IS A REVoCABLE LiVinG TRUST?
A revocable living trust (or a “living trust”) is a legal entity that, like a will, provides a list of instructions for distributing your assets at death. But, unlike a will, a revocable living trust avoids probate.

CIRCuMSTAnCE WiLL REVoCABLE LiVinG TRUST

During Your Lifetime
You manage and use your property as you have always done.

During Incapacity/Disability
Requires court management of your financial affairs.

At Your Death
Avoids court management of your financial affairs.

You manage and use your property as you have always done.

REmEmBRinG T o TRAnSFER yoUR VALUES

Like many Americans, you may want to make a gift to charity. Naming a fund at TCF as a beneficiary in your Revocable Living Trust can be an effective way to perpetuate your values of making an impact through providing support for your favorite charities. Many people would like to do more philanthropy, but have other responsibilities to consider. A gift in your Revocable Living Trust allows you to give when you no longer need the funds and also lowers your estate taxes.
REVOCABLE LIVING TRUST

If you knew in advance that at your death...

• your assets would be reduced by two to twelve percent
• it would take a year to pass your assets to your heirs
• your personal financial information would be made public

would you take steps to avoid this scenario? If you answered “YES”, then you are one of many who want to avoid probate. Probate is the legal process that changes asset ownership from your name to your heirs using the courts. Unfortunately, if you have a will, your assets must still go through probate. To avoid probate costs, delays, and invasion of privacy, you may want to consider a revocable living trust.

WHAT IS A REVOCABLE LIVING TRUST?
A revocable living trust (or a “living trust”) is a legal entity that, like a will, provides a list of instructions for distributing your assets at death. But, unlike a will, a revocable living trust avoids probate.

CIRCUMSTANCE

During Your Lifetime

You manage and use your property as you have always done.

During Incapacity/Disability

Require court management of your financial affairs.

At Your Death

Court, legal and executor costs

9 months to 2 years delay in distribution

Public disclosure

Avoids court management of your financial affairs.

No probate costs

Swift distribution

Your information kept private

REMEMBERING TO TRANSFER YOUR VALUES

Like many Americans, you may want to make a gift to charity. Naming a fund at TCF as a beneficiary in your Revocable Living Trust can be an effective way to perpetuate your values of making an impact through providing support for your favorite charities. Many people would like to do more philanthropy, but have other responsibilities to consider. A gift in your Revocable Living Trust allows you to give when you no longer need the funds and also lowers your estate taxes.
TULSA COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Tulsa Community Foundation (TCF) was founded in late 1998 and exists to make charitable giving more meaningful and efficient. Hundreds of individuals and corporations make all their contributions to charities through TCF’s services. TCF’s donors and the charitable nature of Tulsans have made TCF the largest community foundation in America.

Donors give cash or appreciated assets to TCF and create individual funds in their names. Donors receive an immediate tax deduction and one receipt from TCF, then advise when those assets are given to charities they choose. TCF reviews each recommendation and approved grants are made to charities, in the name of the donor’s fund, in Oklahoma, America and internationally. TCF handles all accounting, reporting, investing and grantmaking.

TCF helps educate donors on the community’s highest needs, creates focused charitable giving strategies for donors, and works to involve children and other family members in multi-generational giving. TCF hosts programs that inform donors across the community about planned giving opportunities—using wealth, rather than current assets, to fund charitable activities. These programs allow donors to maximize what they leave to their families and to charity.

Please consider how you can use TCF’s services to better accomplish your charitable objectives and make a more lasting impact on our community.

To learn more about how Tulsa Community Foundation can assist you in simplifying, streamlining and maximizing your charitable giving, please contact:

Director of Donor Partnerships
7300 S. Yale Ave, Suite 800
Tulsa, OK 74136
918.494.8823
info@tulsacf.org
www.tulsacf.org

TAKING REFUGE IN A TRUST